UNITED STATES FOREIGN TRADE

SUMMARY REPORT
FT 950-I

JULY 1959

FOR RELEASE
September 11, 1959

IMPORT TRADE BY COUNTRY

The Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, announced today that the decrease in United States general imports from $1,369.4 million in June to $1,248.4 million in July reflected decreases in imports from all areas except Western Europe. Changes in the dollar value of imports from these areas from June to July were as follows: Latin American Republics, from $322.2 to $259.4 million; Canada, from $301.4 to $267.5 million; dependencies of Western Europe, from $81.9 to $61.6 million; Western Europe, from $391.7 to $398.6 million; and "all other countries," from $272.1 to $261.3 million.

Imports from O.E.E.C. countries increased slightly from $378.4 to 386.2 million but those from sterling area countries dropped from $240.6 to $226.2 million.

From June to July, general imports from North America fell from $444.9 to $390.5 million due largely to the substantial decrease in imports from Canada, as noted above, and to lesser decreases in imports from Mexico, from $34.9 to $27.2 million and the Netherlands Antilles, from $18.7 to $13.5 million. Imports from South America fell from $210.1 to $161.3 million partly as a result of decreases in imports from individual countries of this continent as follows: Venezuela, from $86.9 to $57.6 million; Brazil, from $38.5 to $31.5 million; and Argentina, from $15.7 to $8.6 million. Declines in imports from Kuwait, from $19.8 to $10.0 million and the Republic of Indonesia, from $22.9 to $15.1 million were the chief factors in the decline in imports from Asia from $232.9 to $215.9 million. Imports from Africa fell from $49.8 to $43.8 million due in part to lower levels of imports from Ghana, from $8.6 to $3.2 million and the Union of South Africa, from $11.1 to $9.4 million. Imports from Australia and Oceania decreased slightly from $32.0 to $30.1 million.

Owing chiefly to an increase in imports from the United Kingdom from $98.0 to $106.7 million, imports from Europe advanced from $399.7 to $406.7 million.

EXPLANATION OF STATISTICS

COVERAGE: Import statistics include merchandise imported by government agencies as well as by private importers, but exclude American goods returned by the United States armed forces for their own use. United States trade with Puerto Rico, Hawaii and United States possessions is not included in this report but the import trade of Puerto Rico and Hawaii with foreign countries is included as a part of the United States import trade. Merchandise shipped in transit through the United States between foreign countries is not included in import statistics.

COUNTRY DEFINITION: Though the country which should be reported in the statistics as the country of origin is defined as the country where the merchandise was grown, mined or manufactured, the country actually shown in the statistics may in a number of cases represent some other country, such as the country of purchase, lading, or the country in which mixed lots of various origin are consolidated. It follows, therefore, that imports from such merchanting or transshipment countries are likely to be overstated and imports from other countries correspondingly understated.

VALUATION: Import values are, in general, based on market price or selling price, and are, in general, f.o.b. the exporting country. They exclude United States import duties. None of the values have been adjusted for changes in price level.

EFFECT OF SAMPLING: Effective January 1958, formal entry shipments valued less than $100 and informal entry shipments valued $250 or less (less than one percent of total import value) are estimated by sampling. The estimated values are included in the area, continent, and country totals in the table. (During 1954-1957, imports valued at $250 or less reported on formal and informal entries were estimated by sampling.) The variability in the import figures due to sampling is no more than three percent or less than $50,000. The largest variation from rounding of figures is $50,000.

Further information regarding coverage, country definition, valuation, etc., is contained in the "General Explanation" in foreword of Report No. FT 110. For complete statement, see the foreword in Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States.
